

Need Help with a Legal Problem?

1. Consult an attorney, who may be more affordable than you think. Look under “Attorneys” in the Yellow Pages in your local phone book. Many attorneys charge little, if anything, for the first consultation. Also, some may be willing to provide limited legal representation (for example, only preparing a certain document or only reviewing documents that you have already completed).
2. The Sheboygan County Bar Association Legal Aide Clinic offers services at The Salvation Army – 710 Pennsylvania Avenue, Sheboygan – every 2nd and 4th Thursday of the month from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.
920-458-3723
3. Visit these two computer websites (if you do not have access to the Internet at home or work, visit your local public library for assistance):
 - a. Wisconsin State Law Library (<http://wsll.state.wi.us>): Self-help guides and some legal forms are available on this website.
 - b. State Bar of Wisconsin (<http://www.wisbar.org>): The “For Public” tab for legal information and educational resources.
4. Call the Lawyer Referral and Information Service at 800-362-9082 (if outside Wisconsin, call 608-257-4666). This public service of the State Bar of Wisconsin offers a Lawyer Hotline, Lawyer Referral, and Community Referral. Although you will not get legal advice, you will talk to a legal assistant who is experienced in analyzing potential legal problems and in helping you locate the best source for additional help.
5. Low-income individuals may qualify for free legal help from Legal Action of Wisconsin. Call 800-236-1128. Legal Action of Wisconsin does not provide legal services in criminal, traffic or juvenile delinquency cases.
6. Court staff can provide general information about court rules, procedures and operations. Court staff can also provide certain forms and instructions. Court staff is not allowed to give legal advice or legal interpretations. For assistance in locating additional legal information, contact your local library or the Wisconsin State Law Library Reference Service at 800-322-9755.
