

The Aging and Disability Resource Center is a place where adults of all incomes and with any need may find information and resources.

Sheboygan County Aging & Disability Resource Center

Professional staff will help you sort through your options and make informed decisions.

Sheboygan County Aging & Disability Resource Center Administered by Sheboygan County Health & Human Services

We can help you:

- Maintain your independence in the community
- Find services to help you remain at home
- Make plans for your future housing and care needs
- Locate health and housing assistance
- Evaluate your eligibility for financial benefits
- Fulfill your role as a family caregiver

Stop in: 650 Forest Avenue
Sheboygan Falls, WI 53085

Call: (920)467-4100
Toll Free 1-800-596-1919
(For County Residents)
TTY (920) 467-4195

Hours: 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Monday through Friday
(Or by appointment)

Mailing Address:
650 Forest Avenue
Sheboygan Falls, WI 53085

E-mail: adrc@sheboygancounty.com

Website: www.sheboygancounty.com

A welcoming source of information and services

Do you have questions or need help related to:

- Aging and the elderly
- Adults with physical or developmental disabilities
- Mental health concerns
SCF-4591

We welcome individuals, and their families, friends, and caregivers.

How we help –

We will talk with you wherever it is most convenient for you – in our office, in your home, over the phone, or by email.

We answer simple questions and we assist when you are faced with making decisions during confusing and difficult times.

Who we help –

- Adults age 60 +
- Adults with physical or developmental disabilities
- Children with disabilities as they transition into the adult services system
- Adults with mental health or substance abuse concerns
- Family Caregivers

Services we offer –

- Information, assistance, and referral for local community resources
- Counseling on options to meet immediate or future care needs
- Assistance to apply for public benefit programs such as Medicare, Social Security, or Medicaid
- Advocacy to cut through problems with benefit programs, health insurance, housing, or consumer issues
- Prevention and health promotion programs
- Services and support to family caregivers
- Link to help when someone is being abused (physically, verbally, or financially)
- Link to help when someone is neglecting their own care
- Transitional services to assist young adults with disabilities to access adult long term care services
- Determine eligibility for publicly funded long term care programs such as Family Care

Resources we can help you find-

- Homemaking & chore services
- In-home personal care
- Adaptive equipment
- Emergency alert devices
- Food Share and food pantries
- Transportation
- Assisted living
- Nursing homes
- Supported employment
- Adult day centers
- Memory evaluation
- Senior Centers
- Support groups
- Care management
- Vision and hearing services
- Senior Dining Centers
- Home delivered meals
- Powers of Attorney
- Home health care
- Housing and low-income apartments
- Alzheimer's and dementia services
- Volunteer opportunities
- Medicare, Part D, and Medicare supplements
- Prescription drug assistance
- Medicaid (Title 19)
- Care giving support

The Aging and Disability Resource Center honors choice, supports dignity, and maximized independence. There is no cost for the services of the Aging and Disability Resource Center. Donations are welcome.